

Name _____

THE MAIN EVENT - MAKE-IT-YOUR-OWN

REMEMBER: • The main event is the MOST IMPORTANT part of a story!

- The main event should take up the largest amount of writing within a story.
- The main event should occur as though in slow motion - with every small detail told.
- The main event is a time for the author to show off and really entertain!

Directions: Read the summary of the main event below. Imagine what is happening. Then, in order to ELABORATE on the main event, ask:

- What did you do? (action) • What did you see, hear, feel? (description)
- What did you wonder/worry? (thoughts/feelings)
- What did you say? (dialogue/exclamation) • SOUND EFFECT?

(Sentence here)

[illegible]