

"We have seen our writing and reading scores soar. This wonderful program has certainly given our children the power to be great writers"

Peggie Roth, 3rd Grade Teacher, St. Jerome's School, Vermillion, AB

Are you looking for proven strategies and lessons for expository writing?
Would you like to have a teacher-friendly methodology to apply immediately in your classroom?

Empowering Writers workshops will show you "HOW-TO" improve student writing by providing you with strategies, resources and a proven methodology to improve your students' writing.

With EWOnline, explore actual classroom footage of each month's instruction curated by EW master trainers. Videos can be viewed by genre or skill, as needed, to best meet teacher's needs.

This workshop is geared for any teacher responsible for teaching narrative writing with a focus on grades 2-8. Participants will:

- understand a variety of expository writing challenges: informational essay/report, the "how to" piece, compare contrast
- explore opportunities for analyzing the organizational structure of the expository essay
- learn specific strategies for crafting strong introductions with attention-grabbing leads
- create clear, concise topic sentences
- generate a number of broad yet distinct main ideas
- write a variety of powerful supporting details
- construct conclusions in which main ideas are creatively restated
- receive powerful exemplars of expository writing for classroom use
