

NARRATIVE & EXPOSITORY 2-Day Workshop

Are you looking for proven strategies and lessons for narrative & expository writing?
Would you like to have a teacher-friendly methodology to apply immediately in your classroom?

Day 1: The focus today will be narrative writing. This workshop is geared for any teacher responsible for teaching narrative writing in grades 2-7. Participants will:

- understand the characteristics of a range of narrative types of stories: character/problem/solution, personal experience, imaginative, realistic fiction
- explore the reading-writing connection
- learn specific strategies for writing entertaining beginnings
- write relevant, vivid elaborative detail
- build suspense
- develop fully-elaborated main events
- craft satisfying extended story endings

Day 2: Building upon the Empowering Writers methodology, today's workshop will focus on expository writing. This workshop is geared for any teacher responsible for teaching expository writing in grades 2-8. Participants will:

- understand a variety of expository writing challenges: informational essay/report, the "how to" piece, compare contrast
- explore opportunities for analyzing the organizational structure of the expository essay
- learn specific strategies for crafting strong introductions with attention-grabbing leads
- create clear, concise topic sentences
- generate a number of broad yet distinct main ideas
- write a variety of powerful supporting details
- construct conclusions in which main ideas are creatively restated
- receive powerful exemplars of expository writing for classroom use
