

This workshop is intended to jumpstart literary awareness and the writing process for teachers, ELA specialists, and administrators in Kindergarten and First Grade.

Participants will learn how to:

- Analyze the developmental stages of writing
- Create the reading-writing connection across all content areas
- Use literature and informational texts as a jumping off point for instruction
- Integrate the NEW TEKS STANDARDS recursively
- Identify genre and author's purpose
- Apply the salient skills of narrative, informational, & opinion writing
- Teach age-appropriate summarization skills
- Create vivid elaboration
- Inspire rich vocabulary development
- Generate suspenseful segments
- Apply age-appropriate research skills

The resources included in the "Workshop K-1 Package" are required. The package includes the Getting Ready to Write Guide for K or Grade 1 (digital or printed) and K-1 Activity Cards. Our new Getting Ready to Write 2019 Edition includes Reading, Writing & Art Connection lessons!
